LARGE FISH RECEIPTS.

Over Two Millions Pounds at This Port To Day.

Trips Are Valued at About $55,000.

Fish are in liberal receipt here today. Several of the shackers have good fares and several of the salt bankers are in from their second voyage with fine trips. Pollock are plenty, and there are two cargoes of cured fish here from eastern ports.

In all there are about 2,100,000 pounds of fish here this morning, 547,000 pounds of which are fresh, the other million and a half pounds being salt fish, nearly all cod. This is one of the largest day's receipts of the season, and is valued at present prices at about $55,000.

Among the big fares here to-day are the following:

Sch. Elector, Capt. Orlando Vanamburg, 290,000 pounds salt cod.
Sch. Mystery, Capt. James Bellevue, 300,000 pounds salt cod.
Sch. Maggie and May, Capt. Alex. McEachern, 250,000 pounds salt cod.
Sch. Helen G. Wells, 85,000 pounds fresh fish, 20,000 pounds salt cod.
Sch. Orpheus, 110,000 pounds fresh fish, 20,000 pounds salt cod.

Herring Notes.

Sch. Independence, with 400 barrels salt herring, sch. Arkona with 400 barrels and sch. Marguerite with 500 barrels, were reported at Bonne Bay, N. F., October 25.

A letter from Bay of Islands, N. F., of October 28, says that sch. Carleton Belle of Boothbay Harbor, arrived there Saturday evening. Sch. Independence arrived from Bonne Bay with 400 bbls. herring. Schs. Senator Gardner and Emma E. Witherell arrived from Gloucester that morning for herring. Latest advices from Wood's Island are that herring are very scarce there. Schs. Peerless, Ida D. Young and Carleton Belle went to Middle Arm that morning. There are very good signs of herring at Middle Arm and North Arm, but there are no big catches; the herring seem to be scattered all over the Arms. Herring are very scarce at Bonne Bay. Schs. Norma and Procyon were expected that evening from Gloucester. No schooners loaded here yet.

A Card.

Sch. Maxine Elliot Gets $11,000
on Salt Bank Trip.

Fare Was One of the Finest Ever Landed.

Sch. Maxine Elliott, Capt. Alden Geel, weighed off 319,000 pounds of salt cod as the result of her recent handline dory salt bank trip, stocking $11,000, the high-line sharing $300, the average share being $220.

This is the second largest Bank cod fare of the season and the largest stock up to date.

Capt. Geel is a hustler of the first water and his success is the direct result of good hard work.

The fare was one of the finest ever landed, the fish being in prime condition, being late caught, and 258,000 pounds were large.

HERRING NOTES.

Fleet Getting Some Fish at Bay of Islands.

Good Prospect Reported at Fortune Bay.

A dispatch from Bay of Islands, N. F., yesterday states that there were 15 American vessels, 20 Canadian and 60 local crafts in the middle and North Arms. Sch. Norumbega has 800 barrels of salt herring, schs. Eliza H. Parkhurst and Marguerite 200 barrels, and the others of the American fleet have from 100 to 200 barrels each. Prospects for good fishing are bright.

A dispatch to William Cluett from St. Jacques, Fortune Bay, N. F. this morning, states that there are favorable reports from the bay, but no herring have been hauled as yet.

Sch. Argo arrived at Bay of Islands last Tuesday and schs. Dauntless and Procyon last Wednesday.

Capt. William Cluett will command sch. Irving Leslie of Bucksport on a Newfoundland herring trip.

Five or six American vessels found herring scarce at Bonne Bay, N. F., and returned to Bay of Islands.

Mackerel Notes.

The mackerel netters of Ketch Harbor,
 N. S., have had a good season.

At Herring Cove, N. S., there is a lull in the mackerel activity of a week ago. The net fishermen, however, are still in hopes to do some good work before the season closes, and believe that another large run has yet to come from the east.

Herring Plentiful in New Hampshire.

A despatch from Exeter, N. H., says that Hampton and Hampton Falls rivers are teeming with herring, which are being caught in large numbers in every conceivable manner. They have attracted many Massachusetts fishermen. One fisherman took, in one night, with nets 75 barrels, and a day's catch is seldom less than 50 barrels. The fish are shipped to Boston, Gloucester and Newburyport, some salted and others for bait. So thoroughly are the rivers and creeks being swept that citizens of the Hamptons are consulting counsel to see if the visiting fishermen cannot be compelled to cease operations.

Good Stocks.

Sch. Tacoma, Capt. Daniel McDonald, stocked $3700 on her recent 16 days fresh halibut trip, the crew sharing $96.40. This is a splendid trip for so short a time.

Sch. Harvard, Capt. Augustus Peterson, stocked $2500 on her recent fresh halibut trip, the crew sharing $80.
